PERSONAL EVALUATION

This section explores the gifts and talents which you might bring to a ministry at Weimar Institute. The Bible emphasizes that each member of Christ's "body" on earth has been given spiritual gifts which are to be used in service to the church and the world (see 1 Peter 4:10,11; also 1 Corinthians 12 and Romans 12:3-8). Whether or not a staff position becomes available to you, we hope that your consideration of the following questions will stimulate a clearer perception of the value God has placed upon you and of the type of ministry for which He has prepared you.

We ask that you answer each of the following questions as candidly and personally as possible. This is an opportunity for you to share yourself as a person. So don't be concerned about formality in your writing style, or about including all the minute details of your developed thoughts. Rather, just sincerely share your personal responses to the questions in the way that is most natural for you. If you need more writing space, attach an additional sheet of paper to the application.

1. When and under what circumstances did you become a Christian? _____

2. What studies, experiences or events have specifically led to your desire for involvement in a ministry such as Weimar Institute's? _____

3. Do you think that an understanding and practice of the principles of healthful living is important in a Christian's life? To what extent do you understand, accept and practice these principles? _____

4. How does your current health status reflect your commitment to the principles of healthful living? _____

5. What role does the Bible take in your life? What do the Scriptures mean to you and how do you use them? _____

6. How do you view the role of Mrs. Ellen G. White and her ministry to the Seventh-day Adventist church? _____

7. In your service for Christ in the recent past, what endeavors has He apparently been able to bless most freely and fully? Explain why you think this blessing has come. _____

8. What would you like to accomplish in the work for which you have applied at Weimar? Discuss principles, goals and methods you would pursue. _____

9. In what ways do you feel that Weimar Institute would likely enrich your own personal growth as a Christian (and the growth of your family, if applicable) if you were a staff member? _____

10. What relationship, if any, do you feel an institution like Weimar might have with the closing events of the great controversy between Christ and Satan on this earth? _____
